Science Predictions for 2010

futurist Raymond Kurzweil

Cell phones will be built into clothing and will be able to project sounds directly into the ears of their users.

Glasses that beam images onto the users' retinas to produce virtual reality will be developed. They will also come with speakers or headphone attachments that will complete the experience with sounds.

Virtual assistants would be capable of multiple functions. One useful function would be real-time language translation in which words spoken in a foreign language would be translated into text that would appear as subtitles to a user wearing the glasses.

Advertisements will utilize a new technology whereby two ultrasonic beams can be targeted to intersect at a specific point, delivering a localized sound message that only a single person can hear.

Predictions for the future !!!

“Heavier-than-air flying machines are impossible.” — Lord Kelvin, British physicist, president of Royal Society 1900

“A rocket will never be able to leave the Earth’s atmosphere.” — New York Times, 1936.

“There is no reason anyone would want a computer in their home.” — Ken Olson, president, of Digital Equipment Corp. (DEC), maker mainframes computers, 1977.

“Nuclear-powered vacuum cleaners will probably be a reality in 10 years.” — Alex Lewyt, president of vacuum cleaner company Lewyt Corp New York Times 1955.

New years Resolutions

Things to make us look better and live longer

Things to make us have more

Things that will help us to get along with everyone

Things that we want to do

Longevity, Prosperity , Peace and Purpose

Let love and faithfulness never leave you, bind them around your neck, write them on the tablet of your heart .Then you will win favour and a good name in the sight of God and man.

Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways
acknowledge him and he will make your paths straight.

Do not be wise in your own eyes; fear the LORD and shun evil. This will bring health to your body and nourishment to your bones.

Honour the LORD with your wealth, with the first fruits of all your crops; then your barns will be filled to overflowing, and your vats will brim over with new wine.

Overflowing

My son, do not despise the LORD's discipline and do not resent his rebuke, because the LORD disciplines those he loves, as a father the son he delights in.

Blessed is the man who finds wisdom, the man who gains understanding, for she is more profitable than silver and yields better returns than gold.

NO FEAR

Have no fear of sudden disaster or of the ruin that overtakes the wicked, for the LORD will be your confidence and will keep your foot from being snared
