Eph. 4:7-14

- 7 “But to each one of us grace has been given as Christ apportioned it.
- 8 This is why it says: “When he ascended on high, he took many captives and gave gifts to his people.”
- 9 What does “he ascended” mean except that he also descended to the lower, earthly regions? 10 He who descended is the very one who ascended higher than all the heavens, in order to fill the whole universe. 11 So Christ himself gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors and teachers, 12 to equip his people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up 13 until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ.”

We are empowered!

- Christ has given all of us enough grace for what we are called to do
- Christ has given us different gifts
- The five fold ministers are appointed to equip the saints for the works of service (to properly equip the saints for the work of serving)

Tim Keller – Presbyterian Church in NY says
“the church must start by articulating clearly and regularly a theology of ‘every-member minister’...From the pulpit, in the classes, by word of mouth, it must be communicated that every layperson is a minister and that ministry is finding needs and meeting them in the goal of the spread of the kingship of Christ.”

Vincent Lombardi

“The quality of a person’s life is in direct relation to his or her commitment to excellence, irrespective of their field of endeavor.”

Martin Luther King, Jr.

“If a man is called to be a street sweeper, he should sweep streets, even as Michelangelo painted, or Beethoven played music, or Shakespeare wrote poetry. He should sweep streets so well that all the hosts of heaven and earth will pause to say, ‘Here lived a great street sweeper who did his job well.’”
